HELPFUL TIP:

Remove the painter's tape before the paint is entirely dry to create clean lines. If you leave the tape on until the surface dries completely, it might lift some of the paint off the surface when you remove it.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- Ace Cabinet, Door & Trim paint
- Primer
- Angled paintbrushes
- Mini roller cover and roller frame
- Drop cloth
- Screwdriver
- Painter's tape
- Sandpaper
- Clean, damp cloth
- Level

Start by removing all hardware from the door. Then sand down any glossy or rough surfaces or imperfections. Once the door is completely sanded, wipe it clean with a damp cloth.

Next, place the drop cloth below the door to catch any drips. Tape all the trim and hinges to protect them from drips and splatters.

Before you paint, prime the entire door, using an angled paintbrush for the hard-to-reach sections and finishing with a mini roller. Once the primer is dry, paint the door with Ace Cabinet, Door & Trim paint in Berry Rose 03D-5.

Once the paint is fully dry, reattach the door hardware. It's really that easy — all it takes is paint, supplies and helpful advice from your neighbors at Ace for a project you'll be proud of!
